Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Tina L Walker (illustrator). 216 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Include Everyone: My Kind of Family is a children's book that makes the young reader the main character in the story, involving him or her fully in the action of the plot and making the key concepts taught by the book far more personal. The pages of Include Everyone: My Kind of Family will take your child on a trip to the park along with a caregiver who can be customized to look like a parent, a babysitter, a grandparent or any other caregiver. At the park, a group of children from diverse backgrounds is anxious to play, but there is a problem that needs to be solved. Not all of the children visiting the park have the same abilities, but everyone wants to be included in the fun. Your child will get the chance to explore how everyone can have fun together regardless of whether they can walk, speak or hear like everyone else. In the end, your child receives a powerful reminder of the power of kindness and learns the powerful concept that personal appearances and abilities don't have to stand in the way of having fun with each other. Include Everyone: My Kind of Family concludes with a series of thought-provoking questions on the importance of accepting others and treating people with kindness. These messages are crucial for children of all ages and can help kids learn to speak out against bullying and exclusion in the classroom and beyond. To help you continue to reinforce the messages of the book, a list of related resources is provided in the front of the book. With 38 colorful pages and...
