Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Journal of Social Hygiene, Vol. 37 At the American Social Hygiene Association's annual meeting last year an extremely interesting symposium on The Common Ground in Family Life Education attempted to arrive at the points of agreement among the three major religious faiths in the matter of sex instruction of children and young people. One of the speakers was Edward B. Lyman, president of the Coordinating Committee of Catholic Lay Organizations. Archdiocese of New York, who presented a Catholic point of view forcefully and convincingly. Since that time, Mr. Lyman's committee has written and recorded a series of scripts to assist parents in giving their children the information they need about birth, maturing and marriage. The recordings, first presented by Mr. Lyman before a class in family living and sex education last July, at the University of Pennsylvania, are now available from The Christophers, 18 East 48th Street, New York, for $4.00 for the set of four records. The Journal of Social Hygiene feels itself fortunate to have permission to publish both Mr. Lyman's remarks and the scripts themselves. We hope that other groups, representing other faiths, who are bringing the same thoughtful, constructive effort to bear on the methods of family life education will give us a chance to read and publish the results of their work. Here is a task the responsibility for which we all share, Protestant and Catholic and Jew alike. While there are some points of difference in our approaches, the common ground of agreement is so broad and so fundamental that we can all only gain from an exchange of ideas about a matter which is of...
