I am confident that every reader of his words will feel in them the beating of the noble heart of France, that France who, bleeding from her own wounds inflicted by an overbearing invader, is still subduing her own pains to give comfort and assistance to Serbia, the weaker sister in the path of glory and sacrifice; that France who, forgetting neither her own children nor her sacred soil trampled under the foot of brutal slave-drivers, still in the nobility of her character is burning with just indignation at the foul Bulgaro German conspiracy against Serbia and European liberties.
