It is her hope that when people read this book, they will become more aware of the spiritual realm and become closer to the God of Hope. Pastor Na shares her connection to the Holy Spirit that encouraged her to seek to strengthen her own faith and in doing so, become a vessel to help save the spiritually dead around the world. About the Author Pastor Hyun Sook Na was born the fourth daughter to a Confucian family in South Korea and suffered many illnesses as a child. For this reason, she spent much of her youth immersed in her studies and prayer, hoping to be cured. Through visions and prayer she was able to found Holy Grace World Missionary Church with seven deacons in 1990, which then had only fifty-four members; they managed to send twelve missionaries around the world, including China, Nigeria, the Philippines, India, Europe, and Australia. She continued to pray and grow her church and, in 2011, forty missionaries were sent out. In the meantime, she has lead worship services in forty-seven nations and has been the source of healing to those in need.
