Bibliogov, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO provided information on the Department of Defense's (DOD) Office of the Director, Operational Test and Evaluation's (DOTE) use of contractors. GAO found that: (1) DOTE policies and procedures for managing contracts for operational test and evaluation (OTE) support complied with existing guidelines; (2) DOTE took measures that were consistent with regulations requiring agencies to guard against contractor conflicts of interest; (3) DOTE use of the Institute for Defense Analyses as a contractor for OTE support was permissible under federal regulations and appropriate, since the Institute was less likely than private contractors to have conflicts of interest; (4) of the $12.5 million DOTE obligated to it during fiscal years 1987 through 1989, the Institute used about $2 million for 51 consultants and 2 subcontractors; (5) of those 51 consultants, 2 had been involved in overseeing programs that they subsequently performed operational test assessments on for DOTE; and (6) in four instances, the Institute performed both acquisition and operational testing functions on the same weapon systems. GAO believes that disclosure of a...
