Excerpt from All the Year Round In presenting this volume it is the hope of the author that this collection of poems, written, many of them, for special occasions, holidays and anniversaries; many suggested by the sayings and doings of my dearly loved friends, the children; others prompted by local conditions and happenings common to most communities, and still others written as an expression of my own sentiments, may prove acceptable All the Year Round. If, When Daddy Comes Home At Night, the little ones gather about the fireside and are made happy by the reading of Childhood Poems and Christmas Verses; if Jest Plain Folks are amused by the would-be Humorous and Dialect Verses; if my Poems of Sentiment touch an answering chord within your hearts, or afford inspiration or encouragement to any of my readers, the mission of this little book will have been accomplished.
