It should have been mentioned that the prizes for the different contests had been previously distributed by the entertainment committee in their own inimitable way. The entertainments of the meeting, besides those mentioned, were an excursion provided by the druggists of Meadville on Tuesday afternoon to Meadville and Ponce de Leon Springs and Park. It is possible that drinking the waters of the spring might have conduced to old age, if not perpetual youth, but the trace of hydrogen sulphide present made a little, more satisfactory than a good deal. Meadville, a handsome town of 15,000 population, is the home of Allegheny College (the Alma Mater of the late President McKinley), and also of the Meadville Theological Seminary (Unitarian), the beautiful grounds of both...
