Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Author s Foreword: The purest saint who ever lived has had thoughts as evil, perhaps, as any that ever entered the mind of the most abandoned; but these thoughts, like vultures that fly through the summer sky, leave no trace behind in the crystal mental atmosphere of the saint. We are responsible only for such thoughts as we, by our own choice, detain and harbor in our minds. Our responsibility begins when we interrupt the flight of the vulture, and tempt it to alight by the offer of food. The evil becomes our own when the vulture becomes domesticated. Many birds-of-paradise, glittering as with the splendor caught from the inmost heaven, fly through the clouded minds of the most depraved; but if there is no home nor food offered them, they also disappear and leave no trace of what has passed through the mind. The good comes only with the domestication of the birds-of-paradise. Through the mental heavens of the author, two birds, Moonblight and Six Feet of Romance, have flown, and he is responsible for them only so far as he has sheltered and fed them. They came from a land beyond his ken, and would, like birds of passage, have flown on, and left nothing to tell of their existence had not their strange notes attracted his attention and interest. One twittered a light song, and the cry of the other was the warning scream of a mother bird. Although neither may possess the brilliant plumage of the bird-of-paradise, yet the author trusts and believes that neither may be classed with the vulture. Who can deny that the old-fashioned superstition that certain men sell themselves to...
