Ripples: A Collection of Poems

By Christopher John Morgan

Austin Macauley Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Ripples: A Collection of Poems, Christopher John Morgan, Chris Morgan spent his early life within the range of the flashing beacon at the summit of the Wrekin Hill in Shropshire and at the same time in the long shadows of the Stretton Hills. Later he moved with his family to Kidderminster where he was further influenced by the Malvern Hills, his father's exciting profession as a gamekeeper and woodman and his mother's material stalls in the market places of several west midland towns. This gave him a love for wildlife, the outdoor life in general and a perspective that finds him always looking upwards and outwards at the world and beyond for the treasures that lie there. He has a great interest in the nature of people and takes pleasure in his hobby of driving boat trips up the River Great Ouse at St Ives, where he swaps his commentary on local history and poems with stories from the varied lives of his widely travelled passengers. He wrote his first poem at the age of seven and has always found poetry a wonderful method of sorting those problems in life that...
