BLUE DUST

A narrative of passionate characters and many strands, skillfully woven together in this engrossing debut novel. Blue Dust is a surreal, poetic and complex work that handles difficult issues with elegance.
— Daphne Solloway

IndiaInk/Roli Books, New Delhi, India. Softcover. Book Condition: New. Blue Dust is an emotional, philosophical and cultural journey that maps the relationships, dreams, hopes and fears of three generations of a family in Pakistan and the Middle East. The central character is a highly volatile and loving girl/woman who struggles largely with her own insecurities in her relationships with her father, husband and sister and the world she is born into (from a social and religious point of view ultimately...).
