AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. GooDbye A fabulous compilation of 31 poems which reveals only the finest piece of writing that can be found in 21st century literature. The poems which were composed and kept captive in the author s personal diary will now be in print and available for all to decipher as well as enjoy. This skillfully written poetry is the result of profound thoughts and heart rendering feelings put from pen to paper after the author s tragic loss of her mother, to whom the author dedicates this work of art to. The author hopes that the readers will find a part of themselves in her own tragedy and contentment by indulging in this book. In the author s own words: My poetry is something unlike you have heard or read before because they are all very private, very familiar yet very unusual at the same time. I would depict my poetry as earnest, it is passion, it is love, it is pain, it is anger and it is everything we experience on a day-to-day basis, it is beyond doubt a concoction of multiple conceptions of who I am and who we are.
