Llumina Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Older women are a rapidly growing demographic in the United States. Emerging from the Shadows highlights the needs older women have for community and describes the benefits of providing a social support structure for them. A model for a social support group, Trust in the Lives of Older Women (TLOW), is presented and explored. TLOW groups have been providing support to older women since 1993. Praise for Emerging from the Shadows Emerging from the Shadows is a valuable contribution to understanding the needs of older women. As an adult geriatric N.P., I work with this demographic group and appreciate the social support structure TLOW offers. -Priscilla Crispell, MS, RN, ANP-BC I believe that Trust in the Lives of Older Women is an important group that can significantly and positively impact not only those women involved in the group but the larger community as well. -Kim Kaffenbarger, MD Geriatrician, Arnot Medical Services Ron and Christy Hofsess have provided a valuable tool for all who have been called to work with older women. In fact, the Trust in the Lives of Older Women program is a valuable blueprint for improving all relationships in a person's life. -Reverend Gary McCaslin American Baptist Minister, Corning, New York DR. RON HOFSESS has been developing trust communities (including Trust in the Lives of Older Women groups) for more than 40 years, and has more than 20 years of experience teaching graduate courses in trust communities at Elmira College in Elmira, New York. DR. CHRISTY HOFSESS is a licensed psychologist in the State of Washington and is cofounder of Interconnections Consulting. She is a faculty member of the Counseling and Health Psychology Department...
