This is a collection of 16 amusing poems telling tales of everyday life. No socks to wash is about the joys of being a single female. A valentine near miss Mean Dean and Prince Charming are tales of very brief romances. Mother knows best Why did they have a pocket What is sex Daddy Let spiders run alive well, these titles speak for themselves. Japanese porcelain a simple guide to what marks to look for. My address A friend gave my name and address instead of her own, what a mistake that proved to be, well for her anyway. Tea with Auntie Pat My auntie Pat is a dear lady, but I preferred not to have refreshments at her house, until I realised how I was upsetting her. BOGOFs Is of course Buy one get one free, my friend certainly did this. Thats nice If you have ever been in the situation where someone bores you to tears with tales of their wonderful life, then this tells of a polite way to deal with it. My plea to my feathered friends I love seeing birds in my garden, I feed them and make sure they have a supply of clean water, but there is one thing I do so wish they would not do. A worms appeal When dropping kitchen waste into your compost bin have you ever wondered if worms have feelings A visit to the osteopath Friends had said he was randy! The humour in these poems is subtle and, as you have no doubt guessed already, a number of them should be taken with the proverbial Pinch of salt. This item ships from La Vergne, TN....
